Section 5: Your Child and Family Transition Plan

The supports and services provided through Early Intervention end when the child turns three. This section serves as your transition plan and identifies the child and family transition needs and the steps and activities needed to make this transition from EI as smooth as possible. Your team will work with you to develop a plan and assist you to identify potential community supports or services that may be beneficial to your child and family.

Your plan will be developed between 9 months ( _____ ) and 90 days ( _____ ) before your child's third birthday.
Date Date

If your child was referred to EI within 90 days of their third birthday, your transition plan will be developed at your initial IFSP meeting.

This planning process will include:

- Discussion with you about your child and family's future needs, potential future services and placements, and details you may need about those service options.
- Procedures to prepare your child for changes in service delivery, including steps to help your child adjust to and function in a new setting. This may include anything from learning to get on a school bus, to separating from family members, to acquiring and using a communication or other assistive technology device in a new setting.
- Identifying the transition steps, activities, and any services that the IFSP team determines necessary to support the transition.
- With your consent (on the EI-07 Consent for Transition Planning Conference), a Transition Planning Conference (TPC) with any community service providers you have identified as potential resources.

While your child's name, date of birth, and your contact info has already been shared with your school district, the TPC is a time for you to share and learn additional information. If your child may be eligible for preschool special education services at age three, this planning process will also include conversations with you about the role of the school district and the process for obtaining your consent for sharing copies with your school district of the most recent evaluations, assessments and IFSP, and inviting the school district representative to a Transition Planning Conference.
